December 2009

Dear Artistic Staffs & Colleagues in the Performing Arts Industry:

You are cordially invited to participate as an Auditor at greater Atlanta's seventh annual Unified Auditions on Monday, March 29 and Tuesday, March 30, 2010 at the 14th Street Playhouse in Midtown, Atlanta.

This service of the Atlanta Coalition of Performing Arts offers you the opportunity to see both union and non-union talent from throughout the region.

There are no fees for ACPA Member companies to audit. Non-member companies from outside the ACPA core service region may attend by invitation only. There is a $25/day fee for non-member companies attending the Unified Auditions.

The link to the Unifieds Auditor Registration can be found online at www.AtlantaPerforms.BIZ, Unifieds-Auditing Companies. Please complete one registration form per organization. The deadline for registration is, Friday, February 26, 2010. Late registrations will be accepted on a first come, first serve basis, and companies registering late are not guaranteed participation.

The Unified Auditions will be hosted by the 14th Street Playhouse, located in Midtown Atlanta, 173 14th Street NE. On the Auditor Information Sheet below, you will find details regarding this year's auditions, including information on hotel accommodations, a map, directions, parking, and MARTA rapid transit.

We look forward to seeing you at the 2010 Unified Auditions. If you have any questions after reviewing the information and application, you are always welcome to contact us at 404-588-9890 or Unifieds@atlantaperforms.com

Take care,

Atlanta Coalition of Performing Art

The 2010 Unified auditions are wheelchair accessible.

2010 Unified Auditions

March 29 & March 30 at the 14th Street Playhouse
2nd Stage, 173 14th Street N E, Atlanta, GA 30309

Auditor Information Sheet

Audition Schedule

Auditions begin promptly at 10:00am on both days. Equity actors will be seen on Monday, March 29 in the morning and mid-day, immediately followed by top-ranking non-Equity actors to complete the Monday auditions. Auditions continue on Tuesday, March 30 with non-equity actors. Please Note: Auditions are only open to Equity and non-Equity performers, 18 years and older. Attending companies are responsible for scheduling private call backs.

Audition Content

Actors will be given of 2.5 minutes for Equity, and 2 minutes for Non-Equity to complete contrasting monologues and optional 16 bars of a song. No a Capella or self-accompaniment will be allowed. An accompanist will be provided.

Rules to Note

- Your company may have no more than 2 representatives in the audition room at any given time. You may rotate your audition room staff as needed. Simply register each name on your application form.
- Each company will receive ONE set of pictures and resumes.
- We will not provide resumes and photos to auditors who are not physically present.

Other Notes

- The Unified Auditions are wheelchair accessible. Designated areas in front of the stage will be reserved for auditors using a wheelchair.
- Dress comfortably and in layers. Everyone's idea of a perfect temperature varies. ACPA will provide beverages (coffee, juice, sodas, water) and snacks (bagels, veggies, fruit, etc) for morning and afternoon breaks on both days.
- Upon request, we provide performers with a list of auditors present during their audition time. Auditor phone numbers and email addresses are not provided. This list includes only company name, mailing address and website.

Actor Screening Process

A panel of artistic screens applicants for the auditions using criteria established by ACPA's Unified Auditions Committee. We strive for quality, diversity and inclusiveness in the screening process. This reflects our commitment to both meet the needs of auditors, and to provide access to a professionally run annual audition for Southeastern union and non-union talent.

Fees

Atlanta Coalition of Performing Arts produces the Unified Auditions as a benefit to its member companies. Guests outside of ACPA'S core service region must pay $25 per day to help cover expenses associated with these auditions. Auditors are responsible for their own expenses associated with travel, hotel and meals.

Parking – MARTA

The 14th Street Playhouse is located at 173 14th Street at the corner of 14th and Juniper across from the Colony Square in Midtown Atlanta. Convenient Theatre parking is available at the Campanile Building parking deck adjacent to the Playhouse on Juniper Street. Save by purchasing prepaid parking for this garage.

The Playhouse has its own MARTA bus stop on 14th Street across from Colony Square and is a short stroll from the Woodruff Arts Center MARTA rail station.

Overnight Accommodations

We will be happy to provide you with information for several hotels near the 14th Street Playhouse. Contact ACPA at the number or email below or visit www.atlanta.net for hotel suggestions.
